CHATELAIN - renovated house with a lot of natural light

1050 Elsenne

Located near the Tenbosch Park, beautiful 1904 townhouse completely renovated in 2013, combining contemporary style with the cachet of a Brussels house.

With a total surface area of ±350 sqm the house is composed as follows:

Entrance hall leading to the living areas and the converted lower floor.

On the upper floor: bright living room with open fire and library overlooking the glass roof, separate study. Glass staircase leads to landscaped courtyard.

On basement level, on the garden side, super equipped kitchen and dining room. Plenty of storage space, and pantry. Street side: cloakroom/games room, laundry room and toilet.

1st floor: spacious master bedroom, dressing room and elegant bathroom.

2nd floor: 2 bedrooms with access to a southwest-facing terrace. The attic can be converted into a 4th bedroom.

A prize was awarded to renowned architects 'Lhoas et Lhoas' for the architectural structure on the rear façade.
