House at Ukkel

 1180
Ukkel

Uccle, charming orangery dating from the 19th century, transformed into a charming villa of ± 280 m² on a land of 25 ares, south oriented garden with a welcoming arbor in glycine. A walkable access can be done by Avenue des Aubépines. The house is built around a spacious entrance hall with a dining room of ± 30 m², a super-equipped kitchen (American fridge, induction, plate warmer,...) with a breakfast corner, a room that can be used as a bedroom, office and/or laundry room and on the other side of the entrance hall beautiful receptions with bow-windows and open fire, a bedroom or office of $\pm 16,5$ m² and a shower room. On the second floor: a first bedroom (± 15 m²), 2 bathrooms, the master bedroom (± 17 m²) with a balcony, a dressing room and the last bedroom with mezzanine (± 24 m²) and access to a terrace. The house has many other surprises such as a magnificent wine cellar accessible through a trapdoor in the room next to the kitchen. Double garage, a garden shed. The electricity has been redone recently. The windows are double-glazed (2015). The garden maintenance included. House to be discovered!
