House at Uccle

 DE FLORÉAL 168 AVENUE/CP, 1180 Uccle

Presented by Debora Peruch: debora.peruch@victoire.be Victoire Junot offers, in the highly sought-after Messor – Brugmann neighborhood in Uccle, this elegant mansion dating from the late 19th century, covering approximately 312 sqm. Combining old-world charm with modern comfort, it enchants with its generous volumes, high ceilings, period moldings, decorative fireplaces, and numerous built-in storage spaces. The ground floor opens to a spacious entrance hall leading to bright reception rooms of about 40 sqm, including a lounge and a dining room in a row. The open kitchen, fully equipped, has a pleasant dining area and opens directly onto a terrace and a charming west-facing city garden, ideal for enjoying sunny late afternoons. The entresol features a shower room and a separate WC. The first floor hosts a beautiful master suite with a large adjoining dressing room that can also be converted into a children's bedroom, office, or versatile room. The second floor offers two spacious bedrooms and a bathroom. The top level provides a large space of about 36 sqm, suitable for a fourth bedroom, an office, a playroom, or a leisure area according to your needs. The semi-basement, benefiting from good natural light through a large street-facing window, includes a laundry room, a boiler room, and several storage cellars. A parking space located less than 50 meters from the house completes this property. EPC: D. A character house, ideally located near shops, transport, schools, and many attractions of the Brugmann and Messor neighborhoods. Must visit soon!
